Meetings

The beautifully designed Den meeting room offers a boardroom for 8 people and can accommodate all your business needs. The Relax Lounge is an ideal venue for having more casual business meetings, reading the newspapers or checking your emails. Complimentary WI-FI access is available throughout the lobby and the restaurant area. We offer a special “Business partners” package which includes the Den for a day, complimentary tea, coffee and pastries for only €99.

Corporate Entertainment

The House hotel offers sophisticated event spaces and tailored packages to entertain, whether it is on a grand or intimate scale. The Relax Lounge is an ideal venue for corporate nights, drinks receptions or BBQ parties, while the Snug area is perfect for more intimate occasions. Our inviting restaurant, the Parlour Bar & Grill provides a perfect setting for dinner parties or festive celebrations. The hotel's casually elegant bar is the place to socialise with colleagues at the end of a busy day. Our team of experts offers advice and support, ensuring that your party is everything you wanted and more.

About the House

The House hotel is a luxurious boutique hotel in Galway, situated on a quiet street in the heart of the city. The House hotel was opened in July 2006 and it has quickly become a central part of the lively social and corporate life of the city. We aim to make our guests' stay the most special experience with blending the warmth of a home with the style of a contemporary hotel. We will take care of our guests as a friend rather than a visitor, giving attention to all their individual needs.
